

Year 12 Induction Task: The Cold War in Asia

Task 1: Print off a map of Asia.

- Mark on the following countries; Japan, Malaya, Philippines, Korea, Vietnam, China and Cambodia
- Identify the capital city for each country
- Mark on the countries which were occupied by Japan during WWII

Task 2: Produce a one paragraph biography for each of the following leaders.

- Truman
- Stalin
- Mao
- Ho Chi Minh
- Kim Il Sung

Think about including nationality, political ideas, achievements and how significant they were.

Task 3: Answer the following two questions using the work that you did on the Cold War at GCSE.

- Which of the following was more important to the development of the Cold War before 1950?

- The Truman Doctrine
- Russian occupation of the Satellite States in Eastern Europe

- “The Cold War developed because the Americans exploded the first atomic bomb in Hiroshima in August 1945”. How far do you agree?