Annotation Key information alongside your work. A record of your experiences, thoughts and emotions connected to an image.

D. Stretch & Challenge

- Plan your time and stick to a weekly schedule.
- · Ensure you have evidence for each Assessment Objective.
- Don't just describe in your annotation. Tell me what I can't see - your thoughts, opinion and intentions

This is the marking criteria produced by the exam board - AQA:

servations and to their intentions in visual and/or other forms.

Present a personal, informed and meaningful response demonstrating analytical and critical understanding realising intentions and where appropriate making connections between visual, written, oral or other element.

Assessment Objective 4

This is what it actually means:

Assessment Objective 1

demonstrating analytical and cultural understanding.

Looking at artists, designers and craftspeople to help your own work. Showing that you can analyse art that inspires you and that you understand the cultural background

Assessment Objective 2

Using lots of different materials and media. Experimenting to find out what works and what doesn't. Improving your work as it progresses.

Assessment Objective 3

Drawing, painting, sculpting, printing, photographing, etc. from objects in front of you or your imagination. Your ideas need to link to AOI, Your thoughts and ideas should also be recorded through annotation.

Assessment Objective 4

This is the work that you make combining of your inspiration (AOI), your experiments (AOZ) and your observations (AO3). This is mostly at the end but there will also be elements throughout your work that answer this AO.

D.Design Drawing ideas

C Steps to success A unit of work is a 'package' of work produced in response to a single starting point. To be successful you need to show evidence of:

- Planning
- Keeping written and visual records
- Research
- Produce experiments and exploration studies
- Safe working practice with techniques
- Review, modify, develop and improve your work
- Finalising your ideas
- Presenting a final outcome or outcomes.
